ARE YOU FACEBOOK FRUSTRATED?
TWITTER-TANGLED?
STYMIED BY SNAPCHAT?
PUZZLED BY THE PROFESSIONAL USES OF SOCIAL MEDIA?

Join our Social Media Symposium

March 29, 2016 | 4:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Hillman Library Digital Scholarship Commons
For schedule and more info visit http://library.pitt.edu/social-media-symposium
The ability to connect with anyone from anywhere, digitally, and the near-necessary need to present a digital version of yourself in multiple iterations has changed how we socialize, write, and even define professionalism. Attend our symposium to learn about this rapidly-evolving field:

Featuring presentations by Pitt students examining the most popular platforms

Including:
- Panel of social media professionals, with Q&A
- An interactive display of digital portfolios
- LinkedIn Profile Photo Booth sponsored by Career Services
- Lab Tutorial area

Hosted by
Pitt English Department’s Public and Professional Writing program, the University Library System, and Carnegie Public Library

For schedule and more info visit http://library.pitt.edu/social-media-symposium

Questions? Contact Sarah Leavens at slleavens@gmail.com