You are invited... to the University of Pittsburgh, University Library System’s annual Audubon Day!

Friday, November 21

Join us for the University of Pittsburgh, University Library System’s annual Audubon Day!

Friday, November 21

Mr. Chris Kubiak will be speaking about the Passenger Pigeon and its complex interactions with bird species. Kubiak will discuss the causes and consequences behind the bird’s extinction as well as the controversial effort to revive the species through cloning. He will be available to answer questions and discuss his work at the Audubon Society of Western Pennsylvania.

Learn more about our vast collection & enjoy a special presentation featuring Chris Kubiak, Development Associate at the Audubon Society of Western PA from 10 am–Noon at Hillman Library, Ground Floor, Amy E. Knapp Room.

Audubon Prints will be on display in Special Collections, 3rd Floor, Hillman Library from 9 a.m.–4:45 p.m.
